NEW LIFESTYLE DOUBLE HUNG WINDOW

Merrill, WI. (September 24, 2013) – Lincoln brings a contemporary feel to the new construction and remodeling markets with the introduction of the Lifestyle Double Hung window for their Distinction, Harmony and Traditions Collections. The Lifestyle Double Hung is the combination of style, performance and affordability that builders and architects have been asking for.

Visually, the Lifestyle DH is clearly designed with aesthetics in mind. Both sashes are built using equal glass and utilize matching stiles and rails for clean sightlines. Recessed flat style jamb liners with no visible weatherstrip, 8° sloped sill and low-profile tilt latches and sash locks help to add to the contemporary appearance.

The Lifestyle Double Hung doesn't force you to choose style over substance. This window was designed for performance and function by utilizing the best components from our other double hung window lines. The Lifestyle features mortise and tenon sash joinery, inverted block and tackle balances, interlocking and weatherstripped checkrails and a myriad of energy saving high performance glass options. In addition the Traditions Collection features cPVC sill and sill nosing, with optional cPVC brickmould, while the Distinction Collection comes with .050 thick extruded aluminum sash and frame.

Another great facet of the Lifestyle Double Hung is matching transoms and picture windows for clean mull and profile continuity. Lincoln has also positioned the Lifestyle Double Hung to fit comfortably into the tight budgets that today's builders and architects face on every project. This makes the Lincoln Lifestyle perfect for your lifestyle. For more information on this exciting new window, go to www.lincolnwindows.com.
